I've got a jealous kind of Love
Every time the winter chills you
These jealous Wars you let us wage
Is this the price of Love to make me wait?

Chorus:

There's no kindness
No mercy in your streets anymore
We measure our lost time in battles and lifelines on our knees

Remember the myrtle tree
The secrets before our broken history?
In the Garden where we used to meet
Yeah I've got a jealous kind of love for the apple of my eye

Chorus:

There's no kindness
No mercy in your streets anymore
We measure our lost time in battles and lifelines on our knees

I've had crazy, crazy dreams
Saw a King riding on a foal in a town that lost its soul
Turned away from the City of Gold
Turned away from the City of Gold
